

My People

I address My soldiers of the cross. I am with you in all the things you do. My hand will strengthen and empower all your endeavors.

My angelic hosts go before you and demonic hordes are fleeing by force of your prayers. I will open the flood gates and none that resist you will prevail.

You are the people that have been obedient and I will repay your efforts with heavenly blessings.

You shall prevail for I have decreed it. You will be known as people after the heart of God. You are My ambassadors the extension of My Son Jesus. You are My 21st century apostles, evangelist, teachers and pastors. I have called and I have sent you. The harvest is heavy and the harvest is great.

Give your all I will not fail you. Be committed with your whole heart for you are a new creature in Christ Jesus. You are the Rees Howells and the Smith Wigglesworth of today. I will anoint all that you commit yourself to. Fear not for I am with you. Ask and it will be given unto you.
