Choose Your Mystery:

It's been 15 years since you've graduated from high school and it's time to reunite and catch up with your former classmates to see how everyone is doing and what everyone has become. Unfortunately, the reunion turns deadly as a killer is amongst you, waiting to strike at his next victim.

Could it be the cheerleader, the class president, or the prom queen?

Stay alert and use your detective skills to uncover the murderer before the end of the night.

You do not know each other but you have all been invited to a mysterious dinner party by an unknown host in the famous Mystery Mansion. The night turns fatal as one of the guests is murdered shortly after dinner. What's even more frightening is the realisation that the killer is amongst you.

Is it the mild-mannered doctor, the wise judge, the flirtatious maid, or the loyal butler?

You must find out before the killer strikes again.
