

Toddler Developmental Goals

Goal 1 : To Learn About Themselves	Goal 4 : To Learn About Communicating
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -To feel valued and secure in their relationships -To feel competent and proud about what they can do -To express their independence 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -To express needs and thoughts without using words -To identify with a home language -To respond to verbal and nonverbal commands -To communicate through language
Goal 2 : To Learn About Their Feelings	Goal 5 : To Learn About Moving & Doing
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -To communicate a broad range of emotions through gestures, sounds, and eventually words -To express their feelings in appropriate ways 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -To develop gross motor skills -To develop fine motor skills -To coordinate eye and hand movements -To develop self-help skills
Goal 3 : To Learn About Others	Goal 6 : To Acquire Thinking Skills
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -To develop trusting relationships with nurturing adults -To show interest in peers -To demonstrate caring and cooperation -To try out roles and relationships through imitation and play 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -To gain and understanding of basic concepts and relationships -To apply knowledge to new situations -To develop strategies for solving problems

Grace Community...
We're more than a school;
we're family!