Day Tours Itineraries

November 24 – Island Hopping w/ Food

Island Tour – 10:00 AM

Participants will be picked up in Be Grand Resort and will be brought to Alona Beach to begin the Island tour. They'll each be given a life vest and their snorkel gear will be ready. They will then head forth the first island.

Virgin Island

The Virgin Island is an open secret of Bohol tourism. With its white sands and untouched natural environment, the Virgin Island is a must-visit. Bask in the sun and relax in the sand on Virgin Island.

Lunch – 12:00 NN

The boatmen will have brought them a feast with 3 different kinds of ulam for them to feast on the beach.

Balicasag Island

Bohol is famous for its diverse and exotic marine life. See all kinds of colorful fishes and corals in Balicasag Island's famous marine sanctuary.

Head Back – 2:00 PM

They will be brought back to Alona Beach, where they will have enough time to wash-up and rest before the start of the event.

November 27 – Bohol Countryside Tour

Start of Tour – 8:00 AM

Guests will be picked up at the lobby of the Be Grand Resort and brought to the respective tour vehicle. They will be brought to the following place:

Baclayon Church

Considered to be one of the oldest churches in the Philippines, this church was built by the Jesuits in 1717. It is made up of coral stones and bonded together by egg white. Unfortunately, it was partly destroyed by the 2013 Bohol Earthquake.

Tarsier Watch

The Philippine Tarsier is considered as the smallest primate in the world. Full grown, it is approximately the size of a human fist. Considered as nocturnal, they survive on a diet of insects such as crickets and moths. Probably the most famous inhabitant of Bohol, this is a definite must see

Bilar Man-Made Forest

This man-made forest in the town of Bilar is called so as it was part of a reforestation project organized by the local government in 1970.

Chocolate Hills

Made up of unusually shaped hills numbering around 1,200, spanning three towns of up to 50 square kilometers, this unique attraction derives its name from the color of its hills which turn brown during summer and green during the rainy season.

Loboc/Loay River Cruise

One of the most popular activities in Bohol, the river cruise in Loboc or Loay is attractive as a native buffet lunch is served on board a roofed raft, while cruising the cool river. The whole cruise usually takes a minimum of forty-five (45) minutes.

Butterfly Sanctuary

The open butterfly garden has been carefully created with specialized plants that attract the butterflies to the garden. There are over sixty species of local butterflies that naturally visit the garden.

Hanging Bridge

This 40 meter wide bridge was originally constructed by just using bamboo and rope, today the rope has been replaced by steel cables, giving added safety and stability

Aproniana Souvenir Shop

After a tiresome but enjoyable day, a good way to cap it off is to buy souvenirs and local items at Aproniana Souvenir Shop. Buy some gifts to bring home to your friends and family, or simply as a souvenir or remembrance of your Bohol vacation.

Head Back to the Hotel – 3:00 PM

They'll be back in the hotel in time for them to enjoy their last afternoon in Bohol or get their luggage and make for the evening flight back.

Night Tours Itineraries

November 26 - Mangrove Discovery

Firefly Kayaking Tour

Pick-up 4:30-5:00PM

Participants will be picked up at the lobby of the Be Grand Hotel. They will then be brought to the Kayaking site.

Kayak Tour 5:30 PM

Kayak distance is about 5km. Smooth water conditions with no strong currents & rapids. It is an easy & relaxing paddle route in a serene mangrove river. For the first part of the trip, you'll be paddling along a river community; you might get to witness homing birds at dusk as you make your way deeper upriver. As the sun totally sets, fireflies will start to congregate in colonies on mangrove trees along the river banks.

Dinner 7:30 PM

After the tiring kayak excursion, enjoy a warm meal back in the starting point and celebrate your accomplishing firefly kayak experience.

Back to the Resort 8:30 PM

Participants will be brought back to the hotel to rest after a tiring late afternoon activity.

2nd Batch Schedule (In case more than 30 participants)

Pick-up 5:15-5:30 PM

Dinner 6:00 PM

Kayak Tour 7:00 PM

Back to the Resort 9:30 PM
