Tsirmpa Award Nomination Form

The Tsirmpa Award for community service recognizes the outstanding commitment and dedication by an individual in the wedding industry. This person will have done more than donate their equipment or services. He or she will have created fundraising events, joined committees, volunteered their personal time and made a difference in the lives of others.

Selection Criteria

Award recipients are selected based on their recent or present volunteer contribution to not-for-profit or charitable organizations as well as their active involvement in the wedding industry.
