Magic Lantern Trivia

The current site of the Magic Lantern Theater was first occupied by Bridgton's first Tannery in 1836. The Tannery burned in 1855, was rebuilt within eight months, burned again in 1893, and was rebuilt one more time two years later. The changing economic times left the building sitting idle until 1929. The Brookside Building became a car dealership on the first floor with the Meserve Theater on the second floor. The theater was renamed the May fair in the 1940's, and later the Brookside Theater.
