Wildlife in East Anglia

By Liz Cutting ARPS on Tuesday 9 October.

Our next Special Presentation is by wildlife photographer Liz Cutting. Although she travels abroad and to locations in the UK she still gets the greatest thrill from photographing wildlife in her local area.

Tickets are free to NDPS members but guests must pay £7.50 for tickets bought from Eventbrite on the internet or £10 on the door. (Eventbrite link on Facebook)

International Battle - Theme

Between Foto-Club Koblenz (Germany), Le Cine Photo Club Nivernais (France) and Norwich & District photographic Society to be judged in Germany, France and England in January 2019.

The theme for this Competition has been chosen by Le Ciné Photo Club, Nivernais and is -

- * Track, trail spoor, prints .
- * Wheel marks.
- * Traces of the past .
- * Small visible quantity e.g. some paint marks.

Now is the time to dust off your images of tracks, wheel marks, traces of the past and small visible quantities. Remember, NDPS is the current holder of the Alan Taylor Memorial Trophy!

Each Club enters a set of twenty (20) PDI images in the Competition. The entry from each Club must include a minimum of five (5) monochrome and colour images with the remainder being all monochrome or colour images.

Full details of the competition & rules are on the Web Site under → Downloads → Useful Documents
