DISCUSSION-

Supervisor Ramsey opens the meeting, explaining that a committee has been setup to negotiate the Town of Scriba’s sewer rates. The chairman that makes up the committee will be Councilor Lagoe, Councilor Kennedy, and Councilor Pasco. He added that this meeting is a workshop to discuss sewer rates for the residents in the Town of Scriba, he then suggest that the public write down any questions or concerns and email them to the chairman of this committee.

Attorney Kevin Caraccioli then goes on to explain the sewer contract with the City of Oswego. The contract was originated in 2012 and designed to run until 2014. He states that The Town of Scriba is currently running under that agreement and paying a bulk rate to the city of Oswego.

Jody Gigon, director of water and facilities is asked the billing process for the residents, he explains the Town of Scriba bills per 1000 gallons and the city bills per user. Concern is expressed on the separate ways of billing.

The residents express their concern regarding the sewer rates. The board members address these comments.

The board members discuss Wine Creek/Sumatra Apartment’s billing and the 2015 Minetto Sewer Study. This discussion led to the proposal of reevaluating the billing for these apartments and reaching out to the nuclear plants, contractors, and the Town of Minetto to revisit the sewer study.
